5. First 3 – Misty Hathcock

Misty announced that the program, which has doubled in size to 80 pre-service teachers, is looking for presenters for professional development. Let Misty know if you are interested.

Bruce Taylor stated that they are looking for non-education majors who are interested in helping at the Governors Village Schools.

Currently they are serving 100 beginning teachers in high needs schools. Misty invited everyone to become part of the program.

6. College work session: Proposed revision of the Peer Observation of Teaching Process – Tracy Rock

Tracy introduced the committee who have been working on the revision; Bob Rickelman, Tina Heafner, Shawnee Wakeman, Lindsay Flynn, and Melinda McCabe. She reviewed most of the revisions which are more meaningful and have more accountability. The process will include part time faculty. It is required for new and optional for existing p/t faculty. She invited everyone to read through the draft document previously sent out by email and then comment on Moodle on the Peer Observation Discussion Forum. Next steps are: Reading of the final plan at the October meeting and a vote at the November meeting. Training during Spring 2013 and implementation in the Fall 2013. Questions and comments can be directed to any of the committee members.

7. Exciting update – Cato Teaching Discovery Mural – Tim Rogers and Mary Lynne Calhoun

Tim provided an update on the Cato Teaching Mural. To view the film that was shown, here is the link: <http://youtu.be/BuiQ52xbszg> . A public launch will take place in late October/early November with a dedication of the mural. He asked that you consider making a gift honoring a teacher. Fifty-two educators have been honored so far with a goal of 100. The money will create an unrestricted endowment. This year the money will be used for the Diversity Award. Additional information can be found on the Looking Forward website: www.lookingforward.uncc.edu.

8. Other business?

- a. NCATE reminder – The Dean reminded everyone to please keep helping when you are called on and thanked everyone for all that they are doing.
